

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

Ben Striker spent Wednesday with his brother, Will, at Nelson.

James Wingfield, Jr., is out again after a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Suits from $20 up at the Krummel Tailoring Establishment.

Drs. Morris & Morris make calls to all parts of city, day or night. 16-2w

Miss Nannie Dooley returned Tuesday from a visit to friends near Orearville.

Misses Mals Fitch and Louisa Ward, were guests of Mrs. N. M. King Monday evening.

Thomas Gwinn left this week for a visit to his brother, William Gwinn, at Enid, Oklahoma.

Jacob Fink and son-in-law, Ed Shannon, left this week for Oklahoma on a prospecting trip.

WHITE PINE SHINGLES,

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Rev. James W. Laughlin, D. D., the guest of Dr. W. H. Black, left Tuesday for Chicago.

Drs. Morris and Morris, headquarters for osteopathy. Office 'phone 380, residence 378. 16-2w

I have a few thousand dollars home money, to loan at five per cent. 16-4t J. W. BRYANT.

Mrs. Walter Robertson, of Kansas City, visited the family of John Robertson in this city this week.

Mrs. J. H. LaMotte has returned to her home at Huntville after a visit to Prof. Penick and family.

James Hogan and Miss Daisy Osborne, guests of Miss Pearl Patterson, have returned to Higginsville.

Dr. Joseph Ragadall, of Chapel Hill, was a visitor at the Ragsdale home on Highland this week.

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Make Low Prices.

Drs. D. C. Gore and D. F. Manning attended the State Medical Association at Jefferson City this week.

Misses Willie Merrill of Denver, arrived this week for a visit to Mrs. James Wingfield and other friends.

Samuel Lynch, C. P. Scott, Winston Smith and August Elsner, all of Sweet Spring, spent Tuesday in Marshall.

James Campbell, who for months has been laid up with rheumatism was able Wednesday to walk to the square.

J. V. Witherby, of Sedalia, attended to business in Marshall Monday and was a dinner guest at Hotel Hurt.

G. W. Newton went to Savannah this week where he made an address Monday evening to the High School graduates.

C. W. Lacy, wife and little daughter and Miss Pearl Parrish, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brown at Fairville.

Mrs. Jane E. Wright and daughter, Miss Emily Wright, of Lyndon, Ohio, are visiting Mr. E. V. Wright and family on Capitol Hill.

AGATITE CEMENT PLASTER,
La Crosse Lumber Co.

Harry Gephart came down from Kansas City Tuesday and attended to business, returning to the city Thursday.

Mrs. James Moore, state organizer of the C. W. B. M., of Palmyra, Mo., visited Rev. B. T. Wharton and wife this week.

Mrs. William Reed, wife of Marshall's popular liveryman, came up from Slater and spent Sunday with her husband.

Misses Agnes Spencer and Carrie Fink spent Sunday with Mrs. J. B. Gaudin at her country home west of Marshall.

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Treat Customers Right.

J. C. Thompson and family moved this week from the Vawter house on East North street to the Avery property on Odell.

T. W. Hunter spent Sunday and Monday with his family in this city and left Tuesday morning for a trip through Kansas.

Mrs. S. T. Northcraft and little daughter, Juanita Marie, left this week for Memphis, Mo., and other points to visit relatives.

Prof. A. R. James and wife will entertain the senior latin class Friday evening at their home on South Lafayette avenue.

W. V. Tipping sold his fine mare, Hetty Green, recently to Mr. John L. Neff, of Los Angeles, California, who will ship her home.

Peter Loren, of Centralia, visited his cousin, S. T. Northcraft, this week. He was enroute to Barton county to spend the summer.

Ed J. Krummel, the tailor, has what you want in the way of a suit or pair of pants at prices that can't be beat.

MEN'S WORK SHOES

Easy
Shoes for Hard-
Worked
Feet—
Honest
Wear in Every Pair.

At $1.15
to $2.50

HOUX BROS.

W. T. Baird a banker, of Kirkville, who is one of the trustees of M. V. C. was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Althouse this week.

Mrs. A. R. Farris and little son, of Boonville, and guest Mrs. Maude Bacon, of Ft. Scott, are guests this week of E. R. Page and family.

John T. Rhoades made a trip to Chicago this week. He shipped four cars of cattle from Slater Monday to Alexander, Ward & Conover.

Mrs. J. H. Hunter returned Monday night from Excelsior, where she left the Judge somewhat improved, but not yet strong enough to return home.

Ben McClure returned Saturday from his farm near Hustonia, where he had been laid up with lumbago, and will remain at home until recovered.

If you are sick and want to get well call on Drs. Morris & Morris, our popular osteopaths. Office first stairway east of Farmers store. 16-2w

If you get a suit at the Krummel Tailoring Establishment you know that you have a perfect fit.

Miss Clara Brown has been selected as one of the maids of honor to attend the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans at Memphis, Tenn., May 28, 29 and 30th.

Rev. J. F. Kemper attended the funeral at Moberly Monday of the late Rev. W. F. Elliott, former president of the State Board of Missions of the Baptist church.

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Never Fail to Please.

Rev. M. P. Irvine, of St. Joseph, was called to Marshall Wednesday on account of the death of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Woodward, who died Wednesday.

Miss Mary Hale, the architect for the F. M. I., returned to Marshall Saturday from Columbia, leaving the same afternoon for Kansas City to attend a meeting of the board Monday.

Marshall C. Snider, of Illinois, is making a visit to his old friend, L. A. Benedict, ten miles south of Marshall. Mr. Snider is in Saline with a view of locating, providing he finds a farm that suits him.

a Crosse Lumber Co.
22 Years Under Same Management.

The friends of Will Striker are rejoicing in the fact that he is improving. Mrs. Wilson, who was also hurt in the runaway is doing nicely at her mother's home in Nelson.

Larkin Hancock came down Wednesday from Blackburn, and spent the day with Mrs. J. W. Sparks. He says Miss Leta Hancock will arrive Saturday for a visit at the Sparks home on Odell avenue.

Mrs. J. T. Crawford and sister, Miss Hettie Nordyke, have enjoyed a series of teas, dinings, etc., since their arrival in Marshall from Parsons, Kansas, last week. They were entertained Wednesday by Miss Fannie Taylor on Yerby street; Thursday by Mrs. John Cunningham and Friday Misses Ella and Anna Booth gave a dining in their honor, when Mrs. Will Long of Fairville was among the invited.

UP-TO-DATE PHOTOS
TWENTIETH CENTURY GALLERY
OVER FLETCHER'S. PHONE 388.

Mrs. James Ansell and daughters, Mary and Daisy, of the Slater neighborhood visited John Dickerson and family on Yerby street this week.

Mrs. Roy Allison has recovered from her recent serious illness and was out driving Tuesday. Mrs. Allison will leave this week for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Conway at Kansas City.

For a nobby up-to-date suit of clothes try The Krummel Tailoring Establishment.

R. C. Horne came up from Jefferson City Saturday and remained over Sunday. He left Monday morning, accompanied by his wife, for Kansas City, where Mrs. Horne made a little visit and the former returned to his post at Jefferson City.

Odd Size Mill Work,

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Dr. William Harrison returned Saturday night from Holton, Kansas, where he was called by the serious illness of his little niece, Ruth Harrison, who with her mother is visiting relatives at that place. Ruth was alarmingly ill with diphtheria, but the Doctor left her out of danger.

A. P. H. Walker, a brother-in-law of D. D. Duggins of this city and at one time a prominent business man of this city, spent several days in Marshall this week. Mr. Walker is living at Union, S. C., and came to Missouri to see his farm near Slater, which was bought by V. B. Swisher of Norton.

See our line of $5.50 trousers. They cannot be beat. The Krummel Tailoring Establishment.

The following young ladies made up a happy fishing party Wednesday afternoon at Salt Fork: Miss Butts, of Louisiana, Misses Maude Mackey, Claudie and Bess Tucker, Miss Hill, of Slater and Miss Thompson, of Boonville, Mary Dysart and Lillie Page.

Cypress Finishing,

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Mesdames Ida Linton and Griswold, of Joplin, L. M. Dunlap, of Kansas City, Mrs. Anna Lenton and L. F. Palmer, of Galena, Kansas, are in our city stopping at Hotel Hurt, introducing a literary work, entitled "Great Men and Famous Women," a book that is being widely circulated. Seventeen thousand copies have been sold in Kansas City alone. These ladies are all bright intelligent ladies, who desire the success with which they are meeting.

Lime, Plaster, Hair, etc.,

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Everette Wilson, son of Mrs. Mary E. Wilson of this city, arrived in the United States this week from the Philippines, where he spent three years as clerk in the paymaster's office. Mr. Wilson hopes to visit his mother and sister, Mrs. Annie R. Vance, in the near future.